

Maggie Hodgins

mhodgins@conmetkane.com
415.469.1711

Education

University of California,
Berkeley, B.A.

Maggie Hodgins serves as the Firm Manager for Conrad | Metlitzky | Kane. Maggie handles all aspects of firm administration while providing paralegal support and litigation management.

Prior to joining Conrad | Metlitzky | Kane in 2019, Maggie worked in the office of Chancellor Carol Christ at University of California, Berkeley as a member of the executive administration team. There, Maggie managed communications with all University departments, outside stakeholders, faculty, student leaders, and the public.

Maggie earned a B.A. in Political Science with honors from UC Berkeley. A Bay Area native, Maggie enjoys staying involved in her community, registering people to vote, and ensuring local political engagement. She also dedicates her time to her local church parish, volunteering as a lector in its liturgical ministry and assisting with faith formation education for grade school children. Maggie lives in the East Bay with her mini-Australian Shepard.